

MOUNTAIN
LIFE MEDIA PRESENTS

PURSUIITS FILM FEST 4

WHAT

Join us for an evening of adventure films and a guest speaker—pro wakeboarder Erika Langman—celebrating sport and the outdoors. The evening's host is Josh Fletcher, a 2006 Pursuits alumnus.

WHY

For 2020, the festival will again feature a silent auction, door prizes, good company, food, drink and cheer—with all proceeds going to support the Pursuits Program, promoting outdoor leadership and exploration for local youth.

WHERE & WHEN

Meaford Hall Arts & Cultural Centre. For more info and ticket availability, visit MeafordHall.ca

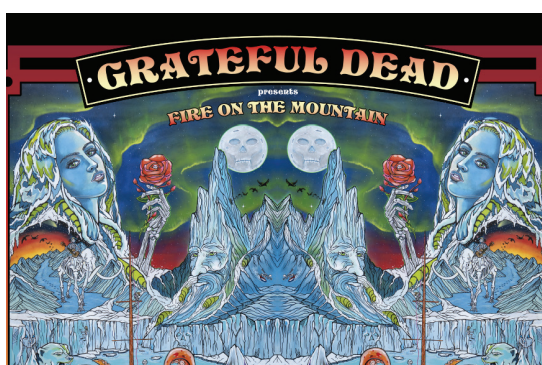

Friday, January 10. Doors open at 6pm, presentations begin at 7pm.

HORS PISTE

(6 MINS, ANIMATED, 2018)

The two best rescue workers of the region are ready for their new mission. Despite their professionalism and their determination, it will not go as planned...

FIRE ON THE MOUNTAIN

(27 MINS, 2019)

This short film finds a cast of some of the world's best athletes on an improvisational journey of skiing, snowboarding, surfing, and music, complete with a soundtrack comprised of only Grateful Dead music.

FEATURE: WINTERLAND

(83 MINS, 2019)

The technology and style might evolve, but the rush, excitement, and pure fun remain eternal, bonding past, present, and future riders. The film will follow these individuals as they leave their own mark on these fabled locations.

The Pursuits Program at Georgian Bay Community School in Meaford is a four-credit integrated curricular outdoor-centric program for grade 11 and 12 students. Students face intellectual, social, and physical challenges to develop the strength and discipline they need to successfully adapt to a dynamic and changing world.

